

AIRPORTS

So many days
I followed you not knowing my true way
Oh, feeling my dream die
rushing away

Not only that I couldn't understand
only that
I could not forget
It's how it goes

So many times
I tried to tell you just how you are Never letting me approach and come in

Words like water

And you will never warm
Deep in my heart
These shards of ice

[chorus]

Ah, you must know the pain
Ah, you must shed the tears
As if a captive caught within the thorns of the rose

Yah, all the airports
And the many cities

I passed through without seeing
Feeling pieces of cold ice grow in my heart
Grow so deep within my heart

[2nd verse]

So many years
Like a helpless moth I'd fly into the light
Then fall right back into Emptiness

Not only that
I couldn't understand

only that
I could not forget

That's how it goes

[chorus]

Ah, you must know the pain
Ah, you must shed the tears
As if a captive caught within the thorns of the rose

Yah, all the airports
And the many cities

I passed through without seeing
Feeling pieces of cold ice grow in my heart
Grow so deep within my heart

Ice deep in my heart
